

We have the following vacancy for an enthusiastic and motivated individual who welcomes the challenge of being part of an organisation committed to working alongside families and communities to tackle the effects of poverty and disadvantage.

Family Support Worker (with responsibility for Group Work)

Hours: 25hrs p/w (Monday- Thursday)

'Happy To Talk Flexible Working'

Salary: £21,567 per annum

Location: Glasgow

The Family Support Worker will provide early intervention group-work sessions and intensive one to one support to achieve improved outcomes for children and families. The family support work is designed to develop strategies for growth which respond to identified needs for individual families. This work is carried out within the context of the Promise, Getting it Right for Every Child (GIRFEC) – Wellbeing Indicators and the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child.

The successful candidate will have insight, understanding and empathy towards the needs of parents and an ability to understand and support parents in a non-judgemental way.

A Qualification in Social Work; Community work; minimum SVQ3 Social Services (Children and Young People) or equivalent qualification and 2 years proven experience of working with parents in a community setting is essential for this post.

The post requires a commitment to equality of opportunity and human rights, and will be subject to a PVG check.

This post is currently funded by Glasgow City Council until March 2027.

Stepping Stones for Families strives to be an equal opportunities employer and welcomes candidates from all sections of the community.
